

Discover the region
of you next holidays

Grupo Elimari España

Sant Carles de la Ràpita (your destination)

The city of Sant Carles de la Rapita is situated in the south of the spanish Catalonia, about 320 km from the french border.

The city has 15.000 residents.

It's known for its typical food (paella, arroz negro, fideua, langostinos, etc...), its marina, its beaches.

Sant Carles de la Rapita is situated between la Sierra del Montsia, la bahia dels Alfacs and el Delta de l'Ebro. There's a micro climate.

The city has 2 marinas (one of 635 and the new one with 1035 places).

The beautiful bahia dels Alfacs allows to enjoy water sports and spend unforgettable moments.

XIRINGUITO

El xiringuito is a restaurant on piles, in the middle of the bahia. This place is only reachable by boat. You can taste typical food in a lovely surrounding .

<http://www.turismelarapita.com/es/sant-carles-de-la-rapita.html>

Sant Carles de la Rapita (part II)

Foradada

For the lovers of walking, La Foradada is a place to go (count 2 hours). Arriving to the top, you will enjoy of a amazing view of the Delta del Ebro and the city of Sant Carles de la Rapita.

La Torreta

Mirador in the top of Sant Carles de la Rapita. You can go walking or by car. The view of the city, the Marina, the harbour, the rice fields, mussels is beautiful.

Plaza Carles III

Principal historical place of Sant Carles de la Rapita. You will find the church, porches with small shops, bars and terraces to have a drink or enjoy a tapa, are open all the year.

Delta del Ebro

The Delta de l'Ebro is like the French Camargue, without the horses.

The superficie is about 320 km²

30 % of rice production comes from here.

You can discover :

Wild beaches more than 25 km longs to enjoy kitesurf and other nautical sports.

The rice fields who changes of colors during the year.

The natural reserve with tens of different birds.
The flamingos live here all the year

Inland

BENIFALLET

Inland, at the bottom of Cardó massif, the mountain offers you its beautiful secrets. Come and discover the stalagmitse and stalactites.

<http://www.benifallet.altanet.org/>

FONT CALDA

Fontcalda pass next to the river Canaletes, in the middle of oak-trees, pine forest and cliff of limestone. This beautiful natural area is situated in the municipality of Gandesa. You will find a medicinal water source with 28 grads.

GANDESA

Wine, olive oil, gastronomy, local bakery. You can't forget to go to Gandesa.

<http://www.gandesa.cat/>

Vinaros

(20 km from Sant Carles de la Rapita)

Vinaròs is the most important commercial area in the north of the province of Castellon. It has an old pedestrian district.

With its 12 km of coast, from the Senia river through the ravine of Aiguadoliva, its more than 20 protected creeks, its sand beaches and its paseo marítimo, Vinaros offers a large choice of activities. The Vinaros coast is divided in 3 areas : the creeks in the north, the beaches in the center, and the creeks in the South.

If you come in February, you have to enjoy the Carnaval of Vinaròs. It's a real show and the most famous in the area.

The Golf Panoramica created by Bernard Langer, golf world champion, has 18 holes. You can enjoy to practice this sport with a beautiful weather.

<http://turisme.vinaros.es/>

Peñíscola

(30 km from Sant Carles de la Rapita)

Peñíscola is a touristical city with a long and beautiful sand beach. The most attractive part is the castle surrounded by a wall, with small streets, with typical local shops.

The natural park de la Sierra de Irta is the unique coastal enclave without any constructions in all the littoral.

Its particularity is the combination between the sea and the moutain. From here, by boat you can go the island of Columbretes.

Peñíscola is also known for its restaurants, bars, night area in the Summer

<http://www.peniscola.es/>

Sant Jaume D'Enveja

(20 min from Sant Carles de la Rapita)

This small village situated in the Ebro is a nice place to visit. You can join the small peninsula of Buda.

You can go along the Ebro until the mouth to discover in the south, the peninsula of Buda and its beautiful views.

Sant Jaume d'Enveja is 7km from a big wild sand beach, like Migjorn or Serrallo. It's a perfect place to be quiet and relax, Next to Serrallo, we find the laguna of Platjola with its 61 hectares of a characteristic lying form.

The village of Sant Jaume d'Enveja, with 3.500 residents, it's a place with a agricultural activity.

<http://www.santjaume.cat/>

Port Aventura

(65 km from St Carles de la Rapita)

Port Aventura is a famous parc in Salou (Tarragona). It was open in 1995. It was conceived by three international groups :
Tussauds Group (owner of Madame Tussaud museum in London and also Alton Towers), Anheuser-Busch (owner of Busch Gardens) and Universal Studios

Its most famous attraction is Dragon Khan, designed by Bolliger & Mabillard and Furious Baco designed by Intamin AG. Dragon Khan has 8 reversal, its route is more than 1270 m. long and a height of 45 m. This attraction is certainly the best success of this park. Furius Baco, opened in June 2007, propelled the visitors at 135km/h in 3 seconds. The park continually innovate.

You can find the following attractions :
Shambhala (from 2012), Ferrari Land (the recently attraction)
Tutuki Splash (Polynesia), un big splash more than 55 km/h.
El Diablo - Tren de la Mina (Mexico), Hurakan Condor (Mexico), Grand Canyon Rapids (Far West), Templo del Fuego (Mexico), Fiestaventura (Mediterranea).
And the new one : Ferrari

<https://www.portaventuraworld.com/>

Morella (1 hour by car)

Morella is a city situated between Teruel and Cataluña. It's surrounded by centenary walls. Its impressive castle at more than 1000 m. of altitude has two mountain pass (Torre Miró (1259 m.) and Querol (1020 m.).

This fortified city, perched on the mountain side, dominate el Alto Maestrazgo. We found numerous archeologic remains.

La Basilica de Arciprestal Santa María, l'Exconvento de Sant Francesc, la Puerta de Sant Mateu, el Castillo, the museum, the city hall, the towers; These are the principal monuments to visit.

<http://www.morellaturistica.com/>

Tarragona

(90 km from St Carles de la Rapita)

The legend says that Jupiter left his wife, Tíria, and fell in love of Tarragona. The story says that in 218 B.C, the Romans lived there, and it became the capital of L'Hispania Citerior. You can now visit a rich monument heritage like la Muralla, el forum, el anfiteatro, el aqueduct, la torre des Escipions and el arco de Bèra.

City of fishing, Tarragona offers a typical food based on seafood. You can taste Romesco or arrossejat. Tarragona has also a commercial area to make shopping and also to enjoy night life.

Tarragona is situated in Costa Dorada, formed by Baix Camp and Alt Camp surrounded by prelitoral mountain (river valley of Francolí and Gaià, and also sand beaches from Salou to Altafulla, Torredembarra and L'Arc de Berà).

<http://www.tarragonaturisme.cat/es>

Valencia

(150 km from St Carles de la Rapita)

Valencia is one of the rare city which allied the vestige of the past and the innovated constructions of the new millennium.

Valence is a synonym of commerce, culture, cinema, theatre, museums, music, and business.

Valencia was the door of Spain to the Mediterranean. Today it preserve the unique charm of a harbour city. Fine sand, deep water and next to the littoral mountains

Parque Oceanografico de Valencia : (<http://www.cac.es/oceanografic/>)

The biggest and spectacular sea park of Europe and an important scientific center. Its aim it to inform thousand of people for the necessity to protect our seas. It's a place to know the principal sea ecosystems of the planet and to travel from the Arctic to the tropical mangroves in question of minutes, through a work of 110.000 m² which think to put a total of 45.000 specimen of different variety.

<http://www.visitvalencia.com/>

Barcelona

(180 km from Sant Carles de la Rapita)

Symbol of Barcelona in the whole world, la Sagrada Familia is also the most famous monument of Antoni Gaudi. The architect gave 16 years of his life to build it, living like a recluse in the monument, before having an accident and dying, without conclude the construction of la Sagrada Familia. From 1926 his mortal remains are in the cathedral.

El Born is a small village in the city. Very fashion, but also so authentic. It's a place with a lot of History, witness of commercial prosperity of XIII century, El Born (La Ribera) with el Barrio Gótico is the old city of Barcelona. Las Ramblas is also a famous place to visit in Barcelonea. Walking from Plaza de Cataluña until the Columbus statue, this promenade is full of kiosques, florists, pet shops and all of type of street artists, Do not hesitate to walk in the small streets, to feel the atmosphere of the old Barcelona.

En 1992, with the olympic games, Barcelona built on the sea and cause an urbanistic disruption. The result is a success. The old industrial lands are transformed and a new area appears : the olympic village. Its marina invite to spend time day and night : water sports, discos, bars, restaurants. Today, it's still a busy place. Next to the marina, you have la Barceloneta, which is the traditional area of the fishermen.

<http://www.barcelona.cat/es/>

Happy holidays !

We hope this information will help you
to enjoy your stay in our region.